

Suggested questions for your county's Department of Human Services:

1. What process is used to decide if a child's body needs to be viewed?
2. What portions of the child's body will be viewed in such circumstances?
3. Do you require consent, a court order, or an emergency for viewing a child's private areas that would be normally covered by undergarments?
4. Do you use a medical provider to search for marks on children's private areas?
5. Do you notify parents when searching for marks on children's private areas?
6. Are parents notified before or after such searches?
7. On what type of device are pictures taken (camera, cell phone)?
8. How are pictures safeguarded and stored, and how are they protected when syncing or copying to other devices?